ITINERARY

DAY 1 Aswan, Philae Temple and the Nubian Village

Meet your Egyptologist guide and start the day by visiting the beautiful Temple of Philae, dedicated to the worship of the Goddess of Love, Isis. Then, sail the tranquil waters of the Nile toward the Nubian Village, located on the west bank opposite Soheil Island, near the Aswan Dam. As you pass through the First Cataract of Aswan, admire the breath taking natural scenery — granite boulders, palm-fringed shores, and traditional Nubian houses painted in bright, joyful colours. Upon arrival, friendly Nubian locals will welcome you and share stories about their heritage, daily life, and customs. Explore the village’s narrow lanes, visit traditional homes, and learn about the Nubians’ deep connection with the Nile and their long history in southern Egypt. Lunch at the locate return during the day before returning to your hotel for a relaxing evening.
